

The background features a collage of three images: a close-up of a rocky, layered geological formation on the left; a wide aerial view of a green valley with a winding river and distant mountains in the center; and a silhouette of a person walking on a vast, golden sand dune on the right. A large, light blue arrow graphic points from the top center towards the bottom right, partially overlapping the images.

OExD®

Outsourced Exploration Department™

Through the OExD® model, our dedicated team of professionals execute the strategy. We have a proven capability and track record to act as a ready-made E&P department, integrated within the client's organisation, with a track record of value creation through new ventures, exploration, operatorship, appraisal & development.

The OExD® Model

- Provides cost-effective full spectrum geoscience team, expertise & software
- Delivers excellent technical execution on operated & non-operated assets
- Value through increased exploration & business development success
- Flexibility to scale resources in line with evolving project requirements
- Operate Assets / projects for and on behalf of clients
- Execute New Venture strategies (opportunity identification & due diligence)
- Corporate Asset/Prospect Inventory value management, ranking, risking
- Farmout support, dataroom, management & hosting
- Relationship management (JV partners, governments, investors)
- Data management & strategic IT advisory
- Long-term OExD® relationship safeguards corporate memory & database
- Training and mentoring of staff

The OExD® model provides a cost-effective and high quality multidisciplinary exploration team, allowing clients to access world class expertise, with certainty of capacity, delivered in a scalable, flexible and cost effective way. OExD® enables management teams to focus on core functions, company strategy and growth, whilst the OExD® team executes the strategy.

Value Creating Track Record

EPI Geoscience (formerly 'P.D.F. Ltd') has more than 20 years' track record in exploration and development projects around the world. Acting as an Exploration Department to operators we have:

- 65% exploration well success rate
- Operated 26 blocks on behalf of clients
- Added >25 licences to client portfolios
- 92% success rate on OExD® worked project farmouts
- Helped clients raise more than $290MM since 2005 through IPOs and market offerings